Tonight we welcome musicians Jill and Joy Procida, both of whom graduated from Seton Hill College with degrees in Music Performance. They are co-managers of the Glass City Swing Band and Joy is also the Musical Director of the band. They both also play in the Westmoreland Symphonic Winds and many other community music ensembles. Jill is a member of the Seton Hill University Faculty Saxophone Quartet and has played numerous musicals for area theater companies such as The Theatre Factory, Greensburg Civic Center, New Kensington Theater and Applehill Playhouse. Joy has played in the Westmoreland Symphonic Winds Jazz Ensemble, the Jubilee Brass Quintet, the Keystone Brass Quintet and many High School and Community Musical pits.
