

We Celebrate our Graduates

Addison Fabian graduated from River Valley High School in Blairsville PA. She was involved with the Art Club, Future Business Leaders of America. She regularly volunteered for a local Food Bank and she is employed at Valley Dairy in Blairsville. She is a member of the National Honor Society and she was voted “most likely to teach the class” by her peers. Other honors include distinguished honor roll from grades 6-12 (and she will graduate with 4.0+ GPA; top 10% of her graduating class); 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place at regional FBLA competitions; perfect attendance in her junior year; and the ServSafe certification. Addy plans to attend West Virginia University (WVU) to earn her Bachelor of Science in Psychology. Her career goal is to be a therapist so she can help others reach their full potential and be an advocate for mental health services.

Alex Fleming graduated Magna Cum Laude from Indiana University of Pennsylvania with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Chemistry. He was on the Dean’s List (2022-2026) and was the Provost Scholar in Fall of 2024. His activities included U-SOAR (Undergraduate Summer Opportunities for Applied Research) 2024, Voluntary Research (Effects of Autophagy-Promoting Supplements on Planarian Flatworm Regeneration). After taking a gap year, Alex plans on going to graduate school to get his PhD in Biochemistry and Molecular Biology.

Nevaeh Hirst, daughter of Sean and Brandie Hirst, graduated from Greensburg Salem High School. She has participated as a band manager in the Greensburg Salem Marching Band for four years and often helped with the Greensburg First Methodist Tech Team over the years. After graduation, she plans to work full-time at Best Beginnings Learning Center as a teacher.
